Why Roosevelt and why associate him with live music social events? Our nation's 25th President, Theodore Roosevelt, helped put Tampa on the map when he visited before disembarking for the Spanish-American War in Cuba in 1898 where the famous San Juan Hill battle took place. With regards to live music, he was a skilled pianist and supporter of American classical music. While in the White House, he hosted eight musicals per year, each with over 300 attendees, and even composed his own pieces.
